

Medium Apparel Dispenser

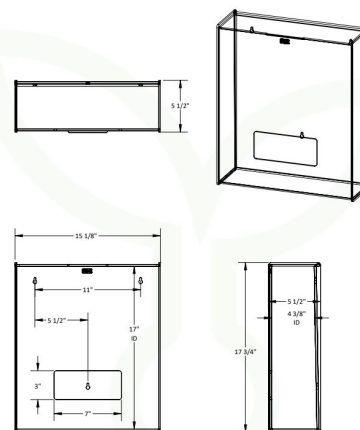

Part No. 50151

Keep your PPE neatly organized, visible, and accessible. Designed for lab managers who prioritize hygiene and efficiency, this clear acrylic dispenser provides a simple, reliable way to store and distribute disposable apparel. The center dispensing hole allows quick, one-at-a-time access, while the hinged lid keeps contents clean and protected from contamination. Built from durable, crystal-clear acrylic, it maintains a polished, professional look and stands up to daily use in lab environments.
